9 FAM 42.41 N1 Establishing Relationship Between Petitioner and Alien Beneficiary

(TL:VISA-52; 12-30-91)

The approval of a petition under INA 204 is considered to establish prima facie entitlement to status. The validity of the relationship between the petitioner and the alien beneficiary, familial or employer/employee, is presumed to exist. Unless the consul has specific, substantial evidence of either misrepresentation in the petition process or has facts unknown to INS at the time of approval, the consular officer generally would have no reason to return the petition to INS. [See 9 FAM 42.43(a) Related Statutory Provisions and 9 FAM 42.43(a) Notes .]

9 FAM 42.41 N2 Importance of Filing Petitions for Preference Status

(TL:VISA-23; 4-4-89)

Immigrant visa applicants compete on a “first-come, first-served” basis for the visa numbers available. Since the filing date of an approved petition may establish the priority of certain preference applicants, consular officers should encourage the filing of a petition on behalf of any alien eligible for preference status, and should not discourage the filing of a petition because the preference category or foreign state limitation is oversubscribed.

9 FAM 42.41 N3 Petition Forms

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, is used to classify the following as immediate relatives under INA 201(b) or as family preference immigrants under INA 203(a)(1), (2), (3) or (4):

- (1) Spouse of a U.S. citizen;*
- (2) Child of a U.S. citizen;*
- (3) Parent of an adult (over age 21) U.S. citizen;*
- (4) Unmarried son or daughter of a U.S. citizen;*
- (5) Spouse, child, son or daughter of a permanent resident alien;*
- (6) Married son or daughter of a U.S. citizen; and*
- (7) Brother or sister of an adult (over age 21) U.S. citizen.*

b. Form I-600, Petition to Classify Orphan as an Immediate Relative, is used to classify the following as an immediate relative under INA 201(b):

- (1) Orphan to be adopted in the United States by a U.S. citizen; and*
- (2) Orphan adopted overseas by a U.S. citizen.*

c. Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, is used to classify the following as an immediate relative under Pub. L. 97-359 or under INA 201(b), or as a special immigrant under INA 203(b)(4):

- (1) Amerasian child, son, or daughter of a U.S. citizen eligible under Pub. L. 97-359 [see 9 FAM 42.24 Exhibit I];*
- (2) Widow(er) of a U.S. citizen; and*
- (3) Special immigrant under INA 203(b)(4) [see 9 FAM 42.32(d) Notes ]*

d. Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, is used to classify an alien as a preference immigrant under INA 203(b)(1), (2) or (3) [see 9 FAM 42.32(c) Notes ]:

- (1) Priority workers;*
- (2) Professional holding advanced degree or person of exceptional ability; and*
- (3) Skilled worker; professional or other worker.*

e. Form DS-1884, Petition to Classify Special Immigrant Under INA 203(b)(4) as an Employee or Former Employee of U.S. Government Abroad, is used to classify an alien for status as a special immigrant as described in INA 101(a)(27)(D). [See 9 FAM 42.32(d)(2) Related Statutory Provisions and 9 FAM 42.32(d)(2) Notes .]

f. Form I-526, Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur, is used to classify an alien as a preference immigrant under INA 203(b)(5). [See 9 FAM 42.32(e) Notes .]

g. No petition is required for the following aliens:

- (1) Returning residents classified under INA 101(a)(27)(A) [see 9 FAM 42.22 Notes ];*
- (2) Certain former U.S. citizens classified under INA 101(a)(27)(B) [see also 9 FAM 42.23 Notes ]; and*

(3) Amerasians eligible under sec. 584(b)(1)(A) of Pub. L. 100-202 as amended by Pub. L. 101-167 and Pub. L. 101-513. [See 9 FAM 42.24 Related Statutory Provisions and 9 FAM 42.24 Exhibit I.]

9 FAM 42.41 N4 Filing Petitions

9 FAM 42.41 N4.1 Proper Filing

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

A properly filed petition must be:

(1) Signed by the Petitioner; and

(2) Accompanied by the appropriate fee. [For a list of INS fees see 9 FAM PART IV Appendix N, Exhibit VII.]

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2 Executing Visa Petitions

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-1 Petitions Executed in the United States

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

a. Petition Forms I-130, I-140, I-126, and I-526 are executed in single copy. A separate petition and fee are required for each beneficiary. Petitioners should file petitions with the Regional Service Center having jurisdiction over their place of residence. Separate petitions are not required for spouses and children entitled to derivative preference status under INA 203(d). The petitions bear an INS receipt number. INS maintains records of the approval of each petition by beneficiary or receipt number. Upon approval, INS will forward the petition by first-class U.S. mail or express delivery service to the National Visa Center (NVC). However, when the petition is filed in conjunction with the application for adjustment of status, the petition may be filed with the INS district office having jurisdiction over the beneficiary's place of residence.

b. Petition Form I-600 is executed in single copy. The fee paid by the prospective adopting parents for the I-600A, Advanced Processing Application, covers the application for the first child and applications for any siblings. A separate fee is required for petitions filed for unrelated children up to the number authorized by the I-600A approval. Petitioners may file the Form I-600 at the INS field office having jurisdiction over their place of residence or at the immigrant visa-issuing post (or overseas INS office) having jurisdiction over the child.

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-2 Petitions Executed by INS Abroad

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

a. INS officers abroad are authorized to approve I-130 petitions for immediate relative and family-sponsored preference status, if the petitioner is a resident of that country. Petitioners who are not residents must file petitions with the Regional Service Center which has jurisdiction over their place of residence.

b. INS officers abroad are authorized to approve I-600 petitions overseas regardless of whether the United States citizen petitioner is a resident of that country.

c. For a list of INS offices abroad and their respective areas of adjudication. [See 9 FAM PART IV Appendix N, Exhibit I .] INS may accept and adjudicate a petition for a petitioner not resident abroad if it is in the national interest or it is established that humanitarian or emergent circumstances exist.

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-3 Consular Officers Authorized to Approve Certain Petitions

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. INS has authorized consular officers assigned abroad, except in countries where an INS officer is stationed, to approve the Form I-130, the Form I-360, when filed by a widow or widower, and the I-600, when accompanied by a completed I-600A, to accord immediate relative status under INA 201(b) or family preference status under INA 203(a). Consular officers shall exercise this authority only in those cases in which the petitioner is a resident of the consular district, unless it has been determined to be in the national interest or that an emergent or humanitarian situation exists. Consular officers must submit monthly reports of these approvals to the INS Headquarters. [See 9 FAM PART IV Appendix N , 201 .]

b. INS has also authorized consular officers assigned abroad, except in countries where an INS officer is stationed, to approve I-600 petitions whenever a United States citizen petitioner personally appears before the officer with an approved I-600A, Application for Advance Processing of Orphan Petition.

c. Consular officers shall not process petitions unless the petitioner appears in person and takes the oath administered by the consular officer as to the truth of the contents of the petition. Consular officers are authorized only to approve petitions. Consular officers shall forward petitions "not clearly approvable" to the appropriate INS office outside the United States together with all supporting documents. [See 9 FAM PART IV Appendix N , 203 .]

d. Consular officers at posts which do not issue immigrant visas will forward the approved petition to the immigrant visa-issuing post having jurisdiction over the beneficiary's residence.

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-4 Adjudicating Emergent or Humanitarian Cases

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

In emergent or humanitarian cases or in cases of national interest, INS officers and consular officers abroad may accept and adjudicate a petition filed by a petitioner who does not reside in a country within the officer's jurisdiction. Instances where a United States citizen personally appears before the consular officer to file an petition to accord immediate relative status to a spouse or child are humanitarian cases and consular officers will accept these petitions.

9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-5 Adjudicating Form I-600 Petitions

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

See 9 FAM 42.21 N12 .

9 FAM 42.41 N5 Petition Validity

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997))

Unless a petition has been automatically revoked under INA 203(g), a properly approved petition shall remain valid indefinitely provided the familial or employer/employee relationship exists.

9 FAM 42.41 N6 Supporting Documents and Fees

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

The supporting documents and fees required by INS in connection with the filing of a petition are given under the instructions portion of each petition. [See 9 FAM PART IV Appendix N, Exhibit III for a listing of INS fees and see 9 FAM 42.21 N12.5-3 for discussion of documents required for I-600 petitions.]

9 FAM 42.41 N7 Establishing Petitioner Status

9 FAM 42.41 N7.1 Proof of U.S. Citizenship

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. Primary evidence that the petitioner is a naturalized U.S. citizen may consist of the following:

(1) A birth certificate issued by a civil authority which establishes birth in the United States;

(2) A Certificate of Naturalization or Certificate of Citizenship;

(3) An unexpired U.S. passport issued initially for a full ten-year period to a petitioner over the age of 18 as a citizen of the United States (and not merely a noncitizen national);

(4) An unexpired U.S. passport issued initially for a full five-year period to a petitioner under the age of 18 as a citizen of the United States (and not merely a noncitizen national);

(5) A statement executed by a U.S. consular officer certifying the petitioner to be a U.S. citizen and the bearer of a currently valid U.S. passport; or

(6) Department of State Form FS-240, Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States.

b. If primary evidence is unavailable, the petitioner must present secondary evidence. This evidence must be evaluated for authenticity and credibility. Such evidence may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

(1) A baptismal certificate with the seal of the church, showing the date and place of birth in the United States and date of the baptism;

(2) Affidavits sworn to by persons who have personal knowledge and were present at the time naturalization took place;

(3) Early school records showing the date of admission to the school, the child's date and place of birth and the name(s), date(s) and place(s) of birth of the parent(s), or

(4) Census records showing name, date and place of birth or age.

c. An approved Form I-600A for an adoptive or prospective adoptive parent attests to INS' determination that citizenship and age requirements have been met.

9 FAM 42.41 N7.1-1 U.S. Passport as Proof of Citizenship

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

A U.S. citizen petitioner abroad may establish U.S. citizenship by presentation of an unexpired U.S. passport issued initially for the full period of validity to the petitioner as a citizen of the United States, not as a non-citizen national. If the petitioner intends to mail the application to an INS office, or is not carrying the passport when seeking to file the petition at a consular office, citizenship may be established by a statement by the consular officer that the petitioner has presented such a passport on some occasion or that post records show the petitioner to be a U.S. citizen who is the bearer of such a passport. This statement may be written on or attached to the Form I-130, I-360 or I-600. If the petition is filed at a consular office and the consular officer is not fully satisfied that the petitioner is a U.S. citizen rather than a national, the petition should be considered “not clearly approvable”. [See 9 FAM 42.41 N4.2-3 .]

9 FAM 42.41 N7.1-2 U.S. Citizen in Armed Forces

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

If it is determined that it would cause unusual delay or hardship to obtain documentary proof of birth in the United States, a U. S. citizen petitioner who is a member of the U.S. Armed Forces and who is serving outside the United States may submit a statement from the appropriate authority of the Armed Forces. The statement should attest to the fact that the personnel records of the Armed Forces show that the petitioner was born in the United States on a certain date (8 CFR 204.1(g)(2)(V)).

9 FAM 42.41 N7.2 Establishing LPR Status

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

The Form I-551, Alien Registration Receipt Card, or other proof given by INS is evidence of status as a lawful permanent resident.

9 FAM 42.41 N7.3 Photocopies of Supporting Documents

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. INS regulations provide that legible, true copies of original documents, including copies of naturalization certificates and alien registration cards, are acceptable if filing petitions with INS adjudicators. A copy of a certified copy from a state bureau of vital statistics which is certified by a notary public is NOT acceptable unless accompanied by the copy containing the state seal.

b. INS has determined, however, that the authority delegated to consular officers to approve petitions will include only those cases in which the originals of the required supporting documents are submitted. All documentation submitted in support of visa petitions approved by consular officers must be original. If the petitioner submits copies of required supporting documents and is unwilling to submit the originals, the consular officer shall consider the petition “not clearly approvable” and refer the petition to INS.

9 FAM 42.41 N8 Petitioner Under Age 14 or Mentally Incompetent

(TL:VISA-52; 12-30-91)

Under INA 201(b) a U.S. citizen petitioner must be at least 21 years of age to accord immediate relative status to an alien parent. Under INA 203(a)(4) petitioners must be at least 21 years of age to accord family-sponsored fourth preference status to a brother or sister. Although it is unlikely that any person under age 14 will have reason to file a petition, it is possible that such a person could be a “spouse” or “parent” and therefore be in a position to file a petition on behalf of their spouse or child. Should this occur, a parent, guardian, or other adult having a legitimate interest in a person who is under 14 years of age may file a petition on that person’s behalf, and the guardian of a mentally incompetent person may file a petition on that person’s behalf.

9 FAM 42.41 N9 Petition Based on Proxy Marriage

9 FAM 42.41 N9.1 Consummated Proxy Marriage

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

If the consular officer is satisfied that the marriage has been consummated, he or she may proceed with processing the visa application based on the premise that a consummated proxy marriage relates back to the date of the proxy ceremony.

9 FAM 42.41 N9.2 Unconsummated Proxy Marriage

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

If the marriage has not been consummated, the consular officer shall return the petition to INS. [See 9 FAM 42.43 N3 and 9 FAM 42.43 Procedural Notes .] If the marriage is subsequently consummated, and INS approves a petition for the same preference classification, the new petition approval can be regarded as a reaffirmation of the validity of the original petition and the original priority date is retained.

9 FAM 42.41 N10 Automatic Conversion of Petitions

9 FAM 42.41 N10.1 Immediate Relative and Family-Based Petitions

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

See 9 FAM 42.31 N1 .

9 FAM 42.41 N10.2 Petitions Approved Prior to 1965 Amendments

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

Form I-130 petitions approved in accordance with the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 prior to the 1965 amendments were automatically converted to the new preference or immediate relative status in 1965.

9 FAM 42.41 N10.3 Petitions Approved Prior to October 1, 1991

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. Family-sponsored petitions approved under the Immigration and Nationality Act prior to October 1, 1991, automatically convert to the corresponding new family preference category.

b. Employment-based third and sixth preference petitions filed before October 1, 1991, automatically accord the new employment-based second and third preferences (E-2 and E-3), respectively. The following-to-join spouse or child of a third preference alien is accorded status in the new employment second preference. The following-to-join spouse or child of a sixth preference alien beneficiary issued a visa prior to October 1, 1991 is accorded the new employment third preference (E34 or E35) status. However, entitlement to status on the basis of these employment-based petitions shall not apply more than two years after the priority date has been reached for visa issuance. In compliance with 8 CFR 204.5(f), the Department has interpreted this provision in a prospective sense, i.e., two years from October 1, 1991, or two years from the date on which a visa number becomes available, whichever is later.

9 FAM 42.41 N10.3-1 Priority Dates Current on October 1, 1991 and Remained Current

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

If the priority date of an old third or sixth preference petition approved prior to October 1, 1991 was current on that date, or subsequently became current, the Department has determined that conversion is no longer applicable and is considered to have expired on September 30, 1993, if:

(1) The priority date has remained continuously current; and

(2) The applicant did not execute an immigrant visa application before a consular officer on or before September 30, 1993.

9 FAM 42.41 N10.3-2 Priority Dates Current Subsequent to October 1, 1991

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

An old third or sixth preference petition, for which the priority date became available subsequent to October 1, 1991, is considered to have expired on the second anniversary of the date on which the priority date was reached, if:

(1) The priority date has been continuously available for the entire two year period; and

(2) The beneficiary did not execute a visa application on or before the last day of such two-year period.

9 FAM 42.41 N10.3-3 Interpretation of “Notification That Visa is Immediately Available”

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

For the purpose of administering 8 CFR 204.5(f), [see 9 FAM 42.41 Exhibit I ] the Department has interpreted “notification that an immigrant visa is immediately available”, to mean the monthly “Visa Bulletin” in which the beneficiary’s priority date is first listed. The two-year clock will begin on the first day of the month following the publication of that “Visa Bulletin” unless the date should retrogress. To avoid the loss of the old priority date, the beneficiary must apply for an immigrant visa within the two-year period beginning on that date.

9 FAM 42.41 N10.3-4 Retrogression of Priority Date

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

If the priority date of an old third or sixth preference petition retrogresses before the full two years have passed, the priority date will not be lost. In fact, a new two-year period will begin for that priority date when the date again becomes current.

9 FAM 42.41 N11 Effect of Marriage Fraud Amendments Act of 1986, Pub. L. 99-639

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

a. The Marriage Fraud Amendments Act of 1986 prohibits INS approval of petitions in certain instances where the spouse of an alien obtained immigrant status on the basis of marriage which took place while administrative or judicial proceedings were pending. [See 9 FAM 42.42 N10.2 .] If the petition is approved by INS in error, consular officers shall return the petition to the INS adjudicating office. If such a petition is presented to a consular officer for approval, the consular officer shall consider the petition "not clearly approvable" and shall forward the petition to INS.

b. The Immigration Act of 1990, however, provides for an exemption if the petitioner provides clear and convincing evidence that:

(1) The marriage was entered into in good faith and in accordance with the laws of the place where the marriage took place;

(2) The marriage was not entered into for the purpose of procuring the alien's entry as an immigrant; and

(3) No fee or other consideration was given for the filing of the petition.

9 FAM 42.41 N12 Petitions Where INS Memorandum is Attached

(TL:VISA- 170; 10-01-1997)

a. In rare instances, the consular officer may receive a petition from INS accompanied by a memorandum containing information which may relate to the alien's entitlement to status or visa eligibility. In those instances, where the information relates to a minor question of fact which the consular officer is able to resolve in the alien's favor, the consular officer shall endorse the memorandum with a brief statement indicating why the visa was issued. The memorandum shall be placed in an envelope, along with the petition, which shall be attached to the sealed envelope for the visa.

b. If the consular officer determines that the alien is clearly not entitled to status, the consular officer shall return the petition to the INS adjudicating office in accordance with the instructions in 9 FAM 42.43 N3 .

c. If the information contained in the INS memorandum raises questions regarding the alien's eligibility or contains classified information, or if a statement regarding the countervailing evidence would require a security or administrative classification, the consular officer shall submit the case to the Department (CA/VO/L/A) for an advisory opinion. The advisory opinion request must provide:

- (1) A copy of the information furnished by INS;
- (2) The evidence developed by the consular officer; and
- (3) The consular officer's recommendation regarding the alien's entitlement to status or eligibility.

9 FAM 42.41 N13 Disposing of Approved Visa Petitions

9 FAM 42.41 N13.1 Petitions Filed with INS

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

INS will endeavor to send approved petitions to the NVC on a daily basis via first-class mail or express delivery. If, due to unanticipated difficulty, the INS Service Center is unable to ship petitions within 72 hours after approval, INS will so notify the NVC. INS will include a computer-generated manifest, arranged in ascending numerical order of INS receipt numbers, in each box of petitions shipped. White bar-code labels will be placed on the right-hand corner of the petitions. No staples will be affixed through the labels. Where required or requested, INS will cable directly to the post or overseas INS office information on immigrant petitions for orphans and approvals of Forms I-600, advance processing applications for orphans. When the petition indicates that the beneficiary intends to adjust status, but no immigrant visa number is immediately available, INS shall retain the petition until such time as a number becomes available.

9 FAM 42.41 N13.2 Receipt of Petition at Consular Offices

9 FAM 42.41 N13.2-1 Petitions Accepted for Processing

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

Consular officers shall accept jurisdiction for processing an immigrant visa petition if the petitioner and the visa applicant are physically present in their district and the beneficiary is likely to be able to remain in the country for the time it normally takes to process a visa. The beneficiary need not be a resident of the consular district.

9 FAM 42.41 N13.2-2 Petitions Received for Aliens Outside Consular District

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

If post receives a petition for an alien not residing in its consular district and the post does not choose to process the application under its discretionary authority [see 9 FAM 42.61 N3.2], posts have two options:

(1) Transfer the petition to the post having jurisdiction, usually the applicant's last place of residence abroad [see 9 FAM 42.41 PN3]; or

(2) *Keep the petition, if the city or country having jurisdiction is not designated to handle immigrant visa applications. Post shall not return immigrant visa petitions to INS.

9 FAM 42.41 N13.2-3 Notifying Beneficiary

(TL:VISA-23; 4-4-90)

The consular officer shall notify the beneficiary of the receipt and disposition of the petition. [See 9 FAM 42.41 PN1 .] Should the consular officer retain the petition at post, he or she shall make clear to the applicant that the petition will be kept on file until such time as a request for transfer is received from another post.

9 FAM 42.41 N13.2-4 Petitions Received After Visa Issuance

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

See 9 FAM 42.73 PN2.1 .

9 FAM 42.41 N13.3 Petitions Received by NVC

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)

Upon receipt of an approved petition, NVC will send the beneficiary a Packet 3 or 3A. [See 9 FAM 42.63 PN5 .]

9 FAM 42.41 N14 Locating Post to Accept Jurisdiction

(TL:VISA-23; 4-4-89)

The consular officer shall make it clear that it is the applicant's responsibility to locate a post willing to accept the case and to ask the receiving post to request transfer of the petition on their behalf. [For further instructions regarding transferring files, see 9 FAM 42.61 PN1 .]

9 FAM 42.41 N15 Revocation and Revalidation of Petitions

(TL:VISA-170; 10-01-1997)
